

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Jessica Brown,

Plaintiff

v.

AMA/NYAG,

Defendant

Case No. 2:24-cv-00471-JAD-DJA

Order Denying Motion

ECF No. 23

Pro se plaintiff Jessica Brown brings this action over a shoplifting episode at Walmart. The magistrate judge screened her complaint, found that it failed to state a colorable claim, and dismissed it with leave to amend by May 16, 2024.¹ Because Brown has not yet filed an amended complaint, there are no claims pending. Nevertheless, she has filed a document entitled “Summary Judgment.”² Because summary judgment is not available when there are no claims pled, and because Brown’s “Summary Judgment” filing is wholly incoherent,

IT IS ORDERED that the motion for summary judgment [ECF No. 23] is DENIED. Brown may not file any additional motions in this case unless and until she timely files an amended complaint and the court screens that complaint and permits claims to proceed.

U.S. District Judge Jennifer A. Dorsey
May 10, 2024

¹ ECF No. 15 at 5.

² ECF No. 23.